SPOTLIGHT } Meghan Andalman
 { Lovebird }

Inspired to create a sophisticated, highly personal experience for Chicago brides, owner Meghan Andalman left the corporate world in 2007 to launch Lovebird.

Armed with a unique understanding of the modern bride (having recently been one herself), Meghan set out to redefine the bridal experience. Her objective: to make the planning as enjoyable as the party.

Today, Meghan has successfully transformed her passion for people (and parties!) into a growing business venture. Under her direction, Lovebird has gained a reputation for creating exquisite events that are as smart as they are stylish.

What lip gloss are you addicted to this month?

Kiehl's Lip Balm #1. Now, forever and always! I have been using this for years and am completely addicted. Really, I don't go anywhere without it.

I feel prettiest when...

i'm calm and relaxed.

If I were a magazine, I would be...

People. a little bit of gossip, a little bit of human interest, book reviews, a crossword and that fun picture search game. what's not to love?

I am always searching for...

the perfect day-time bag to hold all of my stuff.

My favorite place to shop is...

do I have to pick one? That's impossible! In my neighborhood, it's Bess & Loie for bags and great accessories. Such cute things!

My favorite beauty product from my past is...

Tinkerbell Brush-On Peel Off Nail Polish. it provided hours of entertainment as a little girl.

My most embarrassing beauty moment was ...

for a while I was doing my own eyebrows...not a good idea.

The last thing I do before I go to bed is...

read...and kiss my husband goodnight.

I could never live without...

my family and friends. and possibly Diet Coke.

I won't spend more than $10 on...

shampoo and conditioner. i really can't tell the difference.

Favorite fashion trend of all time...

flats. cute and comfortable enough for running errands all day and equally perfect for working all night at a wedding or event.

Someone should have called the fashion police when...

i paired pearls with a purple Minnie Mouse sweatshirt. i was five years old, but still!

Never...

eat at a buffet.

Always...

send a thank you note.

Favorite restaurant?

Opera. this is where my husband proposed so it's very special to me.

Last concert you went to?

Counting Crows, Maroon Five and Sarah Bareilles

Favorite sinful food?

Gluten Free Cupcakes from Swirlz

My favorite spa treatment is... best at...

a massage, outside on the beach, anywhere tropical. unfortunately, the beaches of Chicago do not allow for many opportunities for this indulgence.
